Student Council

No report.

Trustee Report

Nothing to report

Old Business

- Grant Progress- no change over the summer.
- Thresherman's Reunion Breakfast-
 - Very successful! Ran out of pancakes by 9:30, sausages shortly after. Still lots of hash browns leftover, many donated back to the school. Museum was very happy with how it went, and we will happily do again if the opportunity arises.
- Chase the Ace 50/50
 - Went well- will do again in 2024 when schedule is made. Easy to run, only needs 1or 2 people, and ideally a student.
- Portapotties for Grad Party
 - Decision was made via executive email to pay for the portapotties for the Grad party at the cost of $200, so that money raised by the grads could go towards other expenses. Motion made by

Elaine K for Leighann to pay for portapotties on behalf of PAC and be reimbursed, seconded by Leighann Q.

New Business

- Executive Positions-
 - All members of the Executive have allowed their names to stand for a second term, and are as follows:
 - Chairperson: Leighann Quiring
 - Vice-Chairperson: Megan Romphf
 - Secretary: Elaine Kalberg
 - Treasurer: Deanna Shurvell
 - Parents at Large: Lloyd Shurvell, Caroline Wiebe
 - Teacher Representative: Mark Borgfjord

- Christmas Craft Sale
 - Karla approached by Megan to host Christmas Craft Sale on December 2. Decided while we are thankful for the opportunity, it is too much work to take on, and also in direct conflict with the Southend Band Craft Sale the weekend before. Will re-visit the idea possibly in the spring.

- Meeting Regularity
 - Question arose if we need to be meeting monthly as there is a lot of repetition in reports, and there is nothing regarding regularity in the constitution. Decision made to meet in October, late November, January and March, with the plan to revisit the idea in January to see if that still is adequate.
